

The Anatolian Shepherd Dogs are Saving the Wild Cheetah!

The Southern California Chapter of Cheetah Conservation Fund (CCF) is thrilled to welcome
Dr. Laurie Marker to San Diego!

May 11, 2012
2:00-7:00pm

Dr. Laurie Marker from Namibia, Africa will speak at the Jordan's studio. Laurie will be speaking about the ground breaking advances being made by CCF to save the beautiful Wild Cheetah.

She is bringing 'Duke' and his partner, a champion Anatolian bred dog; to tell us how this ancient, gentle giant is helping the Wild Cheetah today.

This event will feature a silent auction with many unique art items available to purchase as well as one of a kind animal art and fashions all helping to fund Dr. Marker's efforts.

Tickets are $45 pre purchased at <http://www.cheetah.org/SpringEvents2012> or $50 @ the door.

Attire is animal themed casual. Wine and hors d'oeuvres will be served.
We hope to see you there!

Address to Jordan's Studio: Turn in and park in front.
9909 Huennekens Street, Suite 105, San Diego, CA 92121.
